RESOURCE GUIDE FOR EDUCATION

“Education is our Passport to the Future, for tomorrow belongs to the People who Prepare for it Today”

~Malcom X

About us:

We are the Education Subcommittee of San Diego Reentry Roundtable. San Diego Reentry Roundtable aims to promote the safe and successful return to the community for those who have been incarcerated. The Education Subcommittee seeks to partner with local non-profits, for-profit, government agencies, universities, community colleges, and vocational schools to provide educational information and support for the incarcerated and formerly incarcerated returning to our community. Our group is comprised of educators, representatives from community-based organizations and governmental agencies, community members, and formerly incarcerated individuals. The Mission of the Education Subcommittee is to provide a forum to discuss educational opportunities, information, and resources for the adult and juvenile incarcerated population throughout San Diego County.

Tuition assistance:

San Diego Promise

The San Diego Promise covers the cost of tuition for two years at San Diego City, Mesa, and Miramar colleges, and provides textbook grants of $400 per year to students who also qualify for a fee waiver (the California College Promise Grant, formerly known as the Board of Governor's Fee Waiver). The San Diego Promise program is open to all first-time/full-time students who are recent high school graduates. In addition, there are limited spaces available for students who do not meet the above requirements, and who are former foster youth, formerly incarcerated, adults returning to school, those who cannot attend full-time due to unique circumstances, and/or DACA recipients.
